ORDER:-

Government of India launched SURAKSHITH MATRITVA AASHWASAN (SUMAN) programme to achieve zero preventable maternal and newborn deaths. The programme is aimed at assured, dignified, respectful and quality healthcare at no cost and zero tolerance for denial of services for every woman and newborn visiting the public health facility in order to end all preventable maternal and newborn deaths and morbidities and provide a positive birthing experience. The objectives of the programme are:

1. Provide high quality medical and emergency services and referrals.
2. Create a responsive health care system.
3. Use institutional and other community-based platforms like NGOs, SHGs, PRIs and elected representatives from community etc. To help spread awareness and mobilize community and facilitate 100% reporting and review of Maternal Deaths.
4. Develop and establish a system of continuous client feedback and redressal of grievances for maternity services Create awareness, build capacities and motivation of all service providers.
5. Provide an interdepartmental platform for convergent action plans Create a steering committee for effective governance including formulating strategies, supervision and review of the program for corrective actions.
6. Beneficiaries of the scheme are all pregnant women, all mothers up to 6 months post delivery, sick new born.
